

LADIES' COLLEGE.

ispipneu8

1891

Addresses to Teachers.

BY MISS MASON,

Author of Home Education. Late Lecturer at Bishop Otter Training College.

II.—THE CORPORATE LIFE :

SOME THOUGHTS ON THE PHYSICAL, INTELLECTUAL, MORAL AND SPIRITUAL TRAINING OF THE YOUNG.

1. The Work of the School, not only a continuation, but a development, of that of the Home.
 2. The Duties and Virtues of the corporate life, and the preparation of the young for that life.
 3. Difficult Children,—i.e. Children who have brought with them to school habits and dispositions which run counter to the scheme for the general good.
 4. Praise and Blame. Rewards and Punishments.
 5. The Habit of Attention. Memory, its use and abuse.
 6. The Initial Idea in a new Study.
 7. "Over-pressure" considered.
 8. Education—a Life.
 9. Education—a Discipline.
 10. Education—an Atmosphere.
-

Tuesdays and Thursdays, at 4.20, beginning October the 22nd.

THE COURSE 10/6.

1891
1891

LADIES' COLLEGE.

Addresses to Children's Nurses.

BY MISS MASON,

Author of Home Education.

1. How the Nurse's Looks and Ways stamp themselves on Children.
 2. The Nursery. Order, Neatness, Sweetness, Regularity.
 3. Some Virtues in a Nurse — Truthfulness, Obedience, Tenderness, Fair-play.
 4. The Children's Baths; their Meals; their Play.
 5. A happy Nursery on a wet day.
 6. Troublesome Children.
-

Thursday, at , beginning October the

THE COURSE I/-

i7p2,pr8v8

1891 +

St Stephen's Hall. Alexandra St
Tivoli

~~LADIES'~~ COLLEGE.

Addresses to Mothers.

By MISS MASON,

Author of Home Education.

1. How the Mother's Looks and Ways stamp themselves on Children
 2. The Home. Order, Neatness, Sweetness, Regularity.
 3. Truthfulness, Obedience, Tenderness, Fair-play.
 4. The Children's Baths; their Meals; their Play.
 5. A Happy Home on a wet day.
 6. Troublesome Children.
-

Monday 3-4 beginning October the 19th
The Course 1/-

Course of Lectures

1891

1891

LADIES' COLLEGE.

Addresses to Parents.

By MISS MASON,

Author of Home Education. Editor of the Parents' Review.

I.—THE INDIVIDUAL LIFE :

THE TRAINING OF CHILDREN ACCORDING TO NATURAL

(i.e. DIVINE) LAW.

these lectures

were given also at about 1891

April 4th

P.R. Vol III

1892 p. 158

What a Child brings into the world. "Human Nature."
Disposition.

- " 5- The Care of the Body. The Development of the Body.
- " 6 A- The Discipline of the Body. The Sanctity of the Body.
- " 7 + The Brain. Conditions of healthy Brain-Activity.
- " 8 B- The Physiology of Habit, and the part Habit plays in Education.
6. Temper. — Various defects of Temper and Disposition considered.
7. The Potency of Ideas. How far Ideas are in the power of the educator.
8. The Training of the Will. The Education of the Conscience.
9. Some Laws of the Spiritual Life which seem to demand the attention of Parents.
10. The Scope of Education — an Atmosphere, a Discipline, a Life.

Wednesdays and Fridays, at 3 o'clock, beginning October the 21st.

THE COURSE 10/6.

1891